Ta ha wus—Already in use by the early 1800's, this 3-syllable word was said to be an aboriginal phrase meaning "he splits the sky." Today, Ta ha wus reminds us there is no limit to learning and creativity.

Tahawus Center serves the Ausable River communities. It is located in a historic building on Route 9N to the High Peaks region of the Northern Adirondacks, on Main Street next to the bridge, in the heart of the business district of Au Sable Forks, in the Town of Jay, NY.
